THE RACETRACK.

CLOSE OF THE BROOKLYN MEETING.

IT WAS NOT A DAY OF AMAZING UPSETS. The Brooklyn Jockey Club's good fortune in the weather met no mishap in the final day of its autumn meeting. A cloudless sky, a gentle sun an pleasant airs gratified the scekers of recreation. The starter was swift and impetuous in his sig nals, and the closing contest was decided before the dinner hour. In gate receipts the afternoon was joy-giver to the stockholders, and in Public form indicated that Anagram ought to tri umph in the first affair, and she was successful, al though her rider, E. Jones, messed her about in an amazing manner. E. Jones, as a jockey, is an odd Anagram was properly the favorite, and got the given. Moody's ride on Kirkwood should have been paid for in Spanish pesetas, and not in American dollars, because it was a Weyler-Toral-Blanco ride, and Burns on Easter Card acted as if he were wattfor the arrival of Easter before waking fre a long sleep. Nevertheless, as Anagram, the favorite, ought to have won on public form and did win the result of the run was received with general

In the second act of the day's drama, Paget's Buela was the favorite, as she had a right to be on public form. Had she been ridden by been at even money or less in the betting. The beflief that Sims has ridden a race now and then for flief that Sims has ridden a race now and then for flies own personal enjoyment and enrichment is scattered far and wide, and it was a perpicaing question whether or not Sims would get from Ruela her choicest speed and form. This time, for ence, Sims was as straight as a string, and no one could have been more considerate to Buela or allowed her ito travel with more freedom. Buela was gay and sportive. For I minute 424, seconds she amused herself an that high-weight handicap at a mile. Nana H. was eccond to Buela. Nana H. is trained by a trainer whose training has been occasionally entangled in cobwebs. She could not outrun Buela, and she did well to secure second place. Nana H. does not slways let loose such speed as she has stored tup. Yesterday she slipped the leash which has bound her repeatedly

Little Burns has been in front frequently in the Bast and in the West, in the North and in the Bast and in the first race he rode the well-backed Easter Card. Fourth place seemed to suit him, and fourth he was at the finish. In the second race fourth place seemed to suit him again, and he was again fourth. In the third race, the Holly Handicap at five and one-half furlougs, for two-year-olds, Burns was en Mr. Galway's Ethelbert, the favorite.
It was a flat-footed start, a start of the kind for which this starter has a whole-hearted devotion.
Ethelbert was poorly off when the flag fell. Mr.
Galway's horses are poorly off as a rule when this starter drops the flag. After the flaf-footed start Burns did some flat-footed riding, and with the flatfooted start and the flat-footed riding. Ethelbert came in third, behind Kentucky Colonel and Prestidigitatrice. It was just the sort of start and just the sort of ride which Mr. Galway's supremely unlucky horses usually get.

Kentucky Colonel has exhibited some hewitching fin-and-out running in the East. Black Venus has done likewise. Both are trained by Eugene Leigh. more popular jockey than Sims, she might have been at even money or less in the betting. The be rtant race of the day of this unapproachable, starter. Only seven ran-flying start far in from a Burns on Ethelbert got starter. Only seven ran. Rentucky tolonel got a flying start far in front and was never overtaken. Burns on Ethelbert got of slowly and clumsily, and rode Ethelbert with a lack of energy and skill which it was mournful to see. Ethelbert, with a fair start and good riding was undoubtedly the best horse in the race at the weights and the distance, but he was third at the end and not first. Burns rode Trolley in the fourth race. Trolley had many friends and was at a short price, but Clawson on St. Callatine, the favorite, outrode Burns and got first place. Sims rode Macco in marvellous style Macco came in last.

In the fifth race the riding of Sims on the Second choice. Ben Ronald, was weird and wonderful. Ben Ronald got third place, and The Winner was fourth.

Ben Ronald got third place, and The Winner was fourth.

In the last race Burns on Lieber Karl and Clawson on Swiftmas were at 9 to 10 each. Swiftmas carried only 106 pounds by the conditions of the trace, while Lieber Karl carried 126 pounds. At those weights Swiftmas defeated Lieber Karl without difficulty.

Clawson earned the honors of jockeyship for the afternoon. He rode two winners, St. Callatine and Swiftmas. He was second on Roysterer, unplaced on Double Quick, unplaced on His Lordship and second on Charentus. If Clawson had been on Ethelbert in the Holly Handicap, and had ridden him as well as he rode St. Callatine in the fourth race, Mr. Galway's colt would have been first to a certainty.

him as well as he rode St. Callatine in the fourth rrace, Mr. Galway's colt would have been first to a certainty.

Burns had six mounts. He was unplaced on Easter Card, unplaced on Mount Washington, third on Ethelbert, second on Trolley, third on Ben Ronald and second on Lieber Karl. Burns had few friends left last night. His riding yesterday was scierotic in the extreme. Burns, Burns, see what Sloan is doing in England! Burns, Burns, would you like to be a Sloan in England come fav? Your jockeyship yesterday was of shockingly poor quality, especially on Ethelbert. Clawson's riding was many degrees better than yours. You need a tutor, a guardian and a governess. It is not safe for you to roam abroad without protection when you ride as you rode yesterday. Now, Burns, are you ready to take an oath that you did your very best, the very best that you can possibly do, at the start and throughout the race on Ethelbert? If you were to take such an oath nobody would believe you. But if you did not do the very best you could possibly do with Ethelbert, why didn't you? What explanation can you make?

with Ethelbert, why didn't you? What explanation can you make?

Some of the Western owners, trainers and jockeys are too cunning and sly for the Eastern handicapper, and for Eastern turfmen generally. Some of the tricklest schemes known on the turf for many years have been carried out by Western men on the Eastern turf in 18%, and Western tricksters have repeatedly boodwinked and dehuded the simple and guilible handicapper, the simple and guilible etarter and the simple and guilible track officials in the East.

The autumn meeting of the Westchester Racing Association will open at Morris Park to-morrow, and the first race will be called at 2 o'clock each day. The book of the Westchester meeting is arranged with admirable lucidity and thoroughness and artistic skill. It shows the master hand and the master mind of H. G. Crickmore, a turf official of rare qualities of intellect and heart, and a man who is always striving to promote what is worthy and meritorious on the racecourses of the East.

A TRAINER'S NOTES AND COMMENTS

The selling races furnish food for gossip, especially when Samuel Hildreth starts a fast horse at a price below its market value. St. Callatine was entered in the fourth race vesterday to be sold for St. Callatine won the race, and promptly raised the price to $2,500, but Hildreth bid an extra $5, and Afterward Hildreth had some words with Fleisch ann, which caused Philip J. Dwyer to deliver Afterward Hildreth had some words with Fleischmann, which caused Fhilip J. Dwyer to deliver a homily on the ethics of seiling races. Mr. Dwyer called attention to the fact that when McCafferty bid on his races he did not complain, because self-ing races were put on the racing card for horsemen to bid for or claim horses that pleased their fancy. If anybody interfered, threatened or in any way molested a bidder on a winner of a selling race, Mr. Dwyer said, that man should be severely punished.

race, Mr. Dwyer said, that man should be severely punished.

Sir Gawain was so badly injured on Wednesday that he is not likely to be seen at the post until next year, and it is possible that he is permanently injured.

William Walker shipped his stable to Louisville last night.

James R. Keene's St. Cloud, with Sloan in the saddle, ran unplaced in the Jocky Club Stakes at Newmarket, England, yesterday. It is likely that Mr. Keene will withdraw from the English turf and race exclusively in this country next year.

JOCKEY CLUB STEWARDS MEET

The stewards of the Jockey Club held a meeting resterday at the Brooklyn course. James R. Keens were present. The application for autumn racing dates made by the Pimilco Driving Club, of Baitt-more, was denied. The following dates were allotted to the Washington Jockey Club for its autumn meeting: November 12 to November 20. James R Keene, James Galway and Andrew Miller were ap-pointed stewards for the Westchester Racing Asso-ciation meeting. It was ordered that all hurdle or Barrett: Charlton Wallace, $40; A. E. Stillwell, $116; James Mallon's Sons, $12; incidentals, $9.70; expenses of valet accompanying body to home, $115. The treasurer was authorized to subscribe $250 to the Barrett fund.

BALTIMORE BEATEN BY THE ENGLISHMEN BY NINE WICKETS MATCH AT MANHEIM TO-DAY.

Raltimore, Sept. 29 (Special). The victorious reer of the English cricketers was continued here to-day on the grounds of the Catonsville Country F. Warner's team scored an eas victory over the Baitimore fifteen by nine wickets When play crased last night the game was in an interesting condition. The Englishmen had but a slight advantage of 24 runs on the first innings, and the local team was expected to even this up by the morning play. Magnificent weather was again in evidence, and the prospect of seeing an exciting conclusion to the game attracted quite a large

The disappointment was great, however, when the wickets went toppling over with disheartening regularity, while the taillies were few and far between. The utterest kind of a rot had set in. There was The utterest kind of a rot had set in. There was no one to stop it, and the sorriest exhibition of batting ever witnessed in an international match was seen. The whole fifteen men were out for a total of 30, or an average of two runs apiece.

This left the English with only seven runs necessary to win, and they obtained them for the loss of but one wicket. The totals for the match were: Relitimore fifteen, 125 and 30, P. F. Warner's team, 150 and 7 for one wicket.

The Englishmen started to-night for Philadelphia, where they expect to have the hardest battle of their tour to-morrow on the grounds of the Germantown Cricket Club, at Manhelm. The Philadelphians are bent on winning this game, and the Englishmen are just as keen on not losing it. A great contest is confidently expected, and it is sure to be fought out to the end.

BASEBALL'S DISASTROUS SEASON. ONLY FOUR OR FIVE LEAGUE CLUBS HAVE PAID

EXPENSES THIS YEAR

Washington, Sept. 29 N. E. Young, president of the National League, says: "At least seven clubs of the twelve will fall thousands of dollars short of their expenses on th year. I was surprised to hear that even Mr. Han-lon's great team, one of the best attractions in the League, will play to an actual loss on the year. Washington, St. Louis, Cleveland, Pittsburg, New-York and Brooklyn will also be forced to delve into their pockets to the tune of many dollars in order to meet losses. Mr. Wagner has been especially

"The war, and that alone, is the cause of the poor attendance all over the major league circuit and throughout the minor leagues. We tried to fool ourselves early in the season with the delusion that the war would not affect our receipts to any great extent, but, as the season advanced, we were obliged to own up that it kept many a dellar from our turnstiles. "I have numerous inquiries from the various club "I have numerous inquiries from the various club presidents and managers of our teams regarding the 15-game schedule, whether it should be carried again next season or whether we should return to the old £2-game assignment of champtonship dates. If the teams draw fatrly well during the first two weeks in tetober the 15-game schedule will doubtless be continued for another year. If we find that the 154-game schedule does not pan our during the last two weeks of the season, we will cut off twenty-two games, though the championship scarce will begin as usual, in the middle of April. The four trip plan has certainly given the public one of the best pennant races we have ever enjoyed. These two extra trips cost money, but the public, you know, must be served, as they are the dictators."

The playing of the New-York team is a disgrad to the city. The management might as well admit its ignorance and disband the team for the season. The two local teams managed to score two runs between them yesterday while their opponents were piling up twenty-five, and at that neither of the games was of the full nine innings.

The St. Louis team seems determined to break the losing record. The team has already made a century of defeats.

There will be a baseball game at Celtic Park Long Island, on Sunday, as well as athletic games. The last game of baseball of the season at Bayonne, N. J., will take place to morrow afternoon on the grounds of the New-Jersey Athletic Club, be-tween the New-Jersey Athletic Club and Montclair Athletic Club teams.

Friends of these men state that their sympathies are with the new organization, but that the existence of a contract with the track management compelled them to participate. The attendance was very small, but the races were pulled off. The professional events were.

OF INTEREST TO WHEELMEN

Many local cyclists who spend some time in the field shooting during the fall season are now making tours whenever their business will permit into the surrounding country, seeking a place to use their shotguns as soon as the hunting season opens. One enthusiastic sportsman has ridden extensively on Long Island and in New-York and New-Jersey, and he reports that the indicationa for plenty of small game this fall are excellent He told a party of cyclists yesterday that he had found a fine stretch of shooting country and in ten minutes a party was organized and the start will wheelman said: "You know that I am fond of all sorts of outdoor sports, and the man who just made the remark about the dirty condition of my bicycle shall have an explanation. am rather careless about my bicycle, and I can't tell why it is. I simply abuse my wheel, that's all. tell why it is, I simply abuse my wheel, that's all, Now, I am as careful of my shotgun as if it were made of precious stones, and the first sign of rust in one of the barrels will keep me nervous for a week until I get it out. I am just as careful with my skates although I could purchase a new pair for a couple of dollars. My wheel is seldom in ship-shape except as to its running qualities. So long as the hearings are all right, and the machine keeps in alignment I let it go at that. There are a lot of other people just like me."

Will R. Pitman, the veteran wheelmen, returned from Roston vesterday, where he has spent sev-"Those roads up there are grand." said over them. They call them "Boston's sandpaper of them are as smooth as glass. They tell me that Sterling Elliott will not be a candidate for the presidency of the League of American Wheel-men, and that he will not run for Chief Consul of Massachuserts. Potter's visit to Boston recently when he attended the annual dinner of the Massachusetts Division of the League of American Wheelmen, had an excellent effect. Potter went there to try to show the natives that it was their duty to fight for a free bloycle baggage bill the same as he had done in this State, and he converted them to his way of thinking in short order. Elliott admits that he made a mistake in suggesting a stipulated charge for the carrying of wheels by the railroads, and it looks as if they will have a bloycle baggage bill in Massachusetts before long. Circulars are being sent out and the cyclists of the State will make it an issue in the next election. As far as I could learn the secession of the professional riders from the League of American Wheelmen has not created much of a stir throughout New-England."

A slow-moving German, carrying a large pane of glass on his shoulder, was responsible for a block-ade in Nassau-st, yesterday afternoon. Just as the man started across the street a wheelman narrowly missed him by swinging quickly to one side. A heavy truck was coming the other way and its course could not be checked so quickly. The man was not conscious of his danger, and in an instant the pole of the wagon had struck the pane of glass and the fragments lay scattered in bits all over the street. The German quickly selzed the horses attached to the wagon and yelled loudly for the police. The blockade continued probably ten minutes before a policeman arrived and cleared the street and arrested the driver of the truck. A partial attempt was made to sweep the broken glass out of the street, but enough glass splinters were left to puncture half the tires in New-York. the pole of the wagon had struck the pane of glass

Mrs. A. M. C. Allen, the woman century rider, will make another attempt to break the women's record between this city and Boston. Mrs. Allen will start from the City Hall in this borough on Sunday. The present record is 23 hours 50 minutes and 16 seconds, made by herself.

A meeting of the National Track Association will be held at the Everett House, in this city, to-night.

Considerable interest is felt as to what position the track managers will take regarding the fight which is on between the professional riders and the League of American Wheelmen. The Associated Cycling Clubs of Long Island is

AMATEUR ATHLETICS. SIXTY-FIRST FALL GAMES OF THE NEW YORK

An attractive programme has been arranged for the sixty-first fall games of the New-York Athletic Club, which will take place at Travers Island tomorrow. The addition of several championships to the ordinary contests has been the means of attracting delegations from Canada, Chicago and Philadelphia.

In the swimming championships Chicago will make a particularly strong bid for point honors with Dr. Paul Neuman, S. P. Avery and Gaorge Wieland. The Chicagoans have been practising at Travers Island and in the tank at Fifty-ninth-st., and all have shown speed. Neuman is entered in all the races, while Avery will help him out in the short distances, and Wieland will support the doctor in the quarter, half and mile races.

The Knickerbocker Athletic Club has also en-tered a good team of swimmers. Witherspoon, Keresey, Reuss and H. H. Reeder will represent the Cherry Diamond in the 100 and 220 yards. T. J. Reilly and J. U. Van Cleif will be the Knickerbock. er men in the long distances. D. M. Reeder, who was expected to win the 100 yards for the New-York Athletic Club, is ill, and his physician has forbidden him to start to-morrow. Dr. J. M. Davis, F. A. Wenck, W. G. Douglas, W. D. Hennen, H. N. Rawlins, J. F. McMillan and L. Fitzgerald, Jr. will, however, wear the Mercury Foot in the championship contest. R. C. Ewry, who holds the standing high-jump record, will be the chief attraction in the field contests. He has come from Chicago to meet A. P. Schwaner, who has for years proved himself the hest man in the East in the standing, high and broad jump championships. Both of these contests have filled well. A large field will toe the mark for the two-mile steeplechase championship, including 'Dick' Grant, of the Cambridgeport Gymnasium, and G. W. Orton, who recently won the championship at the same distance in England.

The swimming races will begin at 11 c. m. and the athletic games at 2:30 p. m. er men in the long distances. D. M. Reeder, who
